

News from the Library Media Center

End of 2013-2014 School Year Edition

Nearly sixteen hundred books were checked out of the library this year, and the books listed below were (in descending order) the most circulated works of fiction in the EHHS library media center.

The Fault in Our Stars.* John Greene. Sixteen-year-old Hazel, a stage IV thyroid cancer patient, has accepted her terminal diagnosis until a chance meeting with a boy at a cancer support group forces her to reexamine her perspective on love, loss, and life.

Allegiant.* Veronica Roth. In the sequel to Insurgent, the faction-based society that Tris Prior once believed in is shattered by violence and power struggles and scarred by loss and betrayal. So when offered a chance to explore the world past the limits she's known, Tris is ready.

The Fall of Five.* Pittacus Lore. John Smith—Number Four—thought that things would change once the Garde found one another, but after facing off with the Mogadorian ruler and almost being annihilated, the Garde know they are drastically unprepared.

Looking for Alaska.* John Greene. Sixteen-year-old Miles' first year at Culver Creek Preparatory School in Alabama includes good friends and great pranks, but is defined by the search for answers about life and death after a fatal car crash.

City of Bones.* Cassandra Clare. Suddenly able to see demons and the Darkhunters who are dedicated to returning them to their own dimension, fifteen-year-old Clary Fray is drawn into this bizarre world when her mother disappears and Clary herself is almost killed by a monster.

Clockwork Prince.* Cassandra Clare. As the Council attempts to strip Charlotte of her power, sixteen-year-old orphaned shapechanger Tessa Gray works with the London Shadowhunters to find the Magister and destroy his clockwork army, learning the secret of her own identity while investigating his past.

The Elite.* Kiera Cass. Sixteen-year-old America Singer is one of only six girls still competing in the Selection, but before she can fight to win Prince Maxon and the Illean crown, she must decide where her own heart truly lies.

Crescendo.* Becca Fitzpatrick. Concerned that she seems to be in danger more than the average high school student, and having decided she relies too much on her guardian angel, Patch, Nora sets out to investigate what really happened the night her father left for Portland, Maine, and never came back.

Matched.* Allyson Condie. Cassia has always had complete trust in the Society to make decisions for her, but when she is being paired with her ideal mate, a second face flashes on the screen, and Cassia begins to doubt the Society's infallibility as she tries to decide which man she truly loves.
