

Student Resource Links:

SAT REGISTRATION AND COLLEGE SEARCH

College Board Online - <http://www.collegeboard.com/>

The most comprehensive college information site, College Board Online includes SAT registration, a "Test Question of the Day," a searchable database of colleges and financial aid information.

ACT - www.actstudent.org

The ACT, a four-hour multiple choice test covering English, Math, Science and Reading with an optional Writing test, is used by colleges in admissions decisions. Some students take the ACT in addition to taking the SAT reasoning test.

Naviance - <https://connection.naviance.com/ehhsct>

East Hampton High School subscribes to an on-line service, Naviance, to assist students in post-secondary planning. When students and parents log on, they will have access to their academic profile, EHHS trends in college admissions and a list of college representatives visiting our school each fall. Other features include; career planning, college searches, and scholarship information. All juniors receive a password in the spring when they complete the interest inventory, "Do What You Are".

FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION

Free Financial Aid Form - <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov>

Families may use this site to complete and submit directly over the Internet the FAFSA Application for Federal Student Aid.

FinAid: The Financial Aid Information Page - <http://www.finaid.org/>

This page (sponsored by the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators) provides links to many sources of information about financial aid.

Fastweb - <http://www.fastweb.com/>

Students may register for scholarship information at Fastweb, one of the Internet's largest free scholarship search sites.

PLANNING YOUR FUTURE

The Occupation Outlook Handbook - <http://www.bls.gov/oco>

When considering potential college majors, students may check out employment trends in the electronic version of the Occupational Outlook Handbook. The entire handbook, searchable by keyword, is included.

Bridges - <http://access.bridges.com>

Login Site ID: 0013950

Password: hampton (must be lowercase)

Students can use the Career Finder to answer questions to get a list of careers that match their interests. The Career Planner includes in-depth information of careers including salary and education needed for the career.