

Teacher Recognized

East Hampton School District was thrilled to join retired High School educator Joan Mastromonaco in her recognition by the Ronald MacDonald Charities as a Local Hero. On October 22nd Mr. Fidler, Principal of East Hampton High School and Ms. Dugas, Superintendent of Schools accompanied Mrs. Mastromonaco, along with her husband, to Governor Malloy's residence to be honored by the Ronald MacDonald Charities. Mrs. Mastromonaco was selected as one of 10 teachers from across Connecticut and Western Massachusetts to be recognized for their hard work, dedication and commitment to area students. The High School was given a $1000.00 check in her honor which will be used to support the advancement of the Social Studies Department. Mrs. Mastromonaco is an outstanding role model for our youth and profession, demonstrating the leadership qualities that make a lasting difference. It is with great pride we celebrate her gift to our students and community.

