

Memorial Elementary School

School Wide Positive Behavioral Support Booklet of Products

Created by: Memorial Elementary's PBS Team—Kay Rosenfeld, Lauren Zimmitti, Sheri Labowski, Jillian Davidson, Jackie Fiora, Keri Hallberg, Jocelyn Remington, Carolanne Pinto, Jessica Newman, Don Briere, Maureen Ryan, Barbara Pomfret, Theresa Mourey, Donna Kirk, Jennifer Fiasconaro

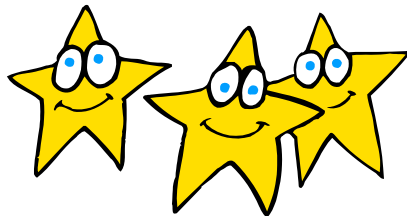

Memorial Elementary School

Mission Statement

Memorial Elementary School, is a collaborative learning community that exhibits safety, respect, and responsibility so that everyone will

SHINE!

Safety First

Have Respect for myself and others.

I will be my own Problem Solver.

Now is the time to be my BEST!

Everyone is responsible.

	Classroom	Hallway	Lunch	Bathroom	Recess	Bus	Emergency Situations (i.e., fire drills, lock downs)
SCHOOL-WIDE EXPECTATION: Safety First	1. Have safe hands and feet 2. Use all classroom materials appropriately 3. Ask the staff member before leaving the classroom. 4. Stay out of the cubbies unless it is time to use them	1. Use walking feet. 2. Keep a safe space between yourself and others. 3. Face Forward	1. Keep hands, feet, food and objects to yourself. 2. Walk at all times. 3. Line up for snack quietly, carefully, and slowly.	1. Use bathroom equipment appropriately—sink, toilet, doors, paper towels 2. Keep your hands and feet to yourself.	1. Walk on the blacktop. 2. Use the equipment appropriately as shown 3. Stay in assigned play areas.	1. Keep my hands and feet to myself on the bus. 2. Stay in my bus seat 3. Sit, facing forward in bus line. 4. Keep my hands and feet to myself in the bus line.	1. Keep my hands and feet to myself. 2. Stay with my class
SCHOOL-WIDE EXPECTATION: Have Respect For Yourself and Others	1. Use kind words 2. Wait your turn to talk. 3. Help others when you can. 4. Be an active listener .	1. Use kind words 2. If walking with your class, stay in your place in line.	1. Keep a quiet talking voice with the people at your table. 2. Wait in your spot in the lunch line 3. Try your best to keep the table and the floor clean	1. Respect your own privacy and the privacy of others. 2. Clean up after yourself.	1. Ask before taking something to play with 2. Invite new people to play with you 3. Consider other people's ideas and opinions.	1. Keep a quiet talking voice. 2. Use polite words.	1. Keep silent or use a quiet talking voice. 2. Follow my teacher's directions.

SCHOOL-WIDE EXPECTATION: I Will Be My Own Problem Solver	1. Politely ask friends for help if something is too hard. 2. Solve problems using an “I feel” statement. 3. If you are stuck, try a new way to solve a problem.	1. Ask yourself, is this the best choice? 2. Pick the shortest way to get to where you need to be.	1. Raise your hand if you need help. 2. Solve problems using an “I feel” statement.	1. Be a reporter—let someone know if you see something that is wrong. 2. Solve problems using an “I feel” statement.	1. Stop and Think before acting. 2. Ask yourself, is this the best choice? 3. If you are stuck, try a new way to solve a problem.	1. Stop and Think before acting. 2. Be a reporter—let someone know if you see something that is wrong.	1. Stop and Think before acting. 2. Be a reporter—let someone know if you see something that is wrong.
SCHOOL-WIDE EXPECTATION: Now Is The Time To Be My Best	1. Show my best effort on all my work. 2. Actively participate in the class lessons	1. Lend a helping hand. 2. Smile, quietly say hello, or silent wave to a friend.	1. Throw away all trash—remember to recycle 2. Follow directions from the teachers.	1. Be a good citizen. 2. Wash hands with soap and water.	1. Be kind. 2. Invite new people to play with you 3. Help others	1. Be a good citizen. 2. Smile, quietly say hello, or silent wave to a friend.	1. Stay alert and pay attention to your teacher and your class 2. Help others

SCHOOL-WIDE EXPECTATION: Everyone Is Responsible	1. Complete my work. 2. Remember to return all work and homework to the teacher. 3. Have all my materials ready for class	1. Walk to exactly where my teacher has told me to go. 2. Be quick—go directly where you need to be. 3. Be aware of other students' work in the hallways—do not disturb their work.	1. Ask permission before using the bathroom—remember to sign out. 2. Clean up your eating area.	1. Flush the toilet after use. 2. Be quick—leave the bathroom as soon as you are done.	1. Keep your promises to friends. 2. Keep the play areas clean	1. Respect each other's personal space and belongings. 2. Have all of your materials with you when you get on and off the bus.	1. If you need to walk in the halls, walk quietly and slowly. 2. Be quick—go directly where you need to be.
---	--	--	---	--	--	--	---